

PELTZER SUHREN

CORPORATE / M&A

Whether you are planning to establish or organize a business of your own, take in new investors as shareholders or merge with other companies, we will assist you with advice on any questions of national or international corporate law. We will help to develop the most advantageous solutions for your company, exploiting the full scope of the law, to give you the greatest possible freedom of action, while duly weighing up all risks involved. Our activities focus on the following areas:

- The establishment of new companies, including foreign branches, subsidiaries and Joint Ventures
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Business transformations
- Changes to the capital structure
- Disputes between companies and their shareholders
- Involvement in negotiations with German and foreign partners
- Market surveys and searches for partners
- Due diligence investigations
- Registrations
- Assistance with liquidation proceedings
- Determination of issues concerning succession