

PELTZER SUHREN

OUR PROFILE

PELTZER SUHREN is an internationally oriented full service German law firm with offices in Hannover and Shanghai and partner offices in Beijing, Izmir and Alicante. Specialised on International Business Law, we are also active in most European Countries, Russia, Asia and South America.

Our client's base consists of mostly German and international companies, banks, insurance companies and associations, including companies listed on the Dax index. We advise our clients on all aspects of German and International Business Law with competence and commitment. In addition, we provide broad services for private clients regarding property related issues.

With a tradition of several generations of lawyers we consider ourselves as specialists, possessing long-standing experience and far reaching expertise.

Our team consists currently of 12 specialized lawyers. They work in integrated teams with leading tax consultants and auditors. We also provide notarial services. We are able to benefit from our long-standing network with foreign colleagues and other experts, that enable us to conduct international transactions successfully and to provide individual solutions for our clients.

In spite of our international orientation we do not strive for the size and formate of a large firm. The establishment of personal and trustful long-term relationships with our clients is of primary importance for us. Our objective is to provide services of the highest quality with a team of professionals in order to increase the economic success of our clients.
